

I pay a month fee so that I can listen to these channels that you are trying to band. I also paid extra for this equipment buying my car. You are trying to control what we are willing to pay money for so that we can get the information we need and want at any time or any where. X-m radio is the best thing since cable tv. So leave it alone. Spend your time trying to make our country a better place, not a worse place.